Our trainers are active firemen/women who have current training and experience in how to deal with an emergency. They understand the impact a fire can have on the workplace, individuals, their families and the community. The training we cover ensures you fulfil your legal obligations in relation to the Work Health Safety Act 2011, and AS 3745-2010 Emergency Control Organisation and Procedures for buildings, structures and work places.

The Person Conducting a Business or Undertaking (PCBU) is responsible for ensuring staff has the training required to deal with an emergency situation in the workplace. Therefore, building owners, property managers, employers and employees should be trained in the theory and practical elements in Fire Safety.
